JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

WHITEFIELD'S DEATH.

The time came for Whitefield to die The man had been immortal till his work was done. His path had been bright, and it grew brighter to the end, like that of the just.

"You had better be in bed, Mr. Whitefield," said his host, the day he preached his last sermon.

"True," said the dying evangelist, and clasping his hands, cried: "I am weary so, not of, thy work, Lord Jesus."

He preached his last sermon at Newburyport. Pale and dying, he uttered therein one of the most pathetic sentences which ever came to his lips:

"I go to my everlasting rest. My sun has risen, shone, and is setting—nay, it is about to rise and shine forever. I have not lived in vain. And though I could live to preach Christ a thousand years, I die to be with him which is far better."

The shaft was levelled. That day he said: "I am dying!" He ran to the window; lavender drops were offered, but all help was vain; his work was done. The doctor said: "He is a dead man." And so he was; and died in silence. Christ required no dying testimony from one whose life had been a constant testimony.

Thus passed away on September 30th, 1770, one of the greatest spirits that ever inhabited a human tabernacle. The world has ever been an innumerable gainer by his life. He had preached eighty thousand sermons, and they had but two key-notes: 1. Man is guilty, he must be pardoned. 2. Man is immortal, he must be happy or wretched forever. Weeping filled Newburyport, flags floated at half-mast, and the ships fired minute-guns.

"Mortals cried, a man is dead;
Angels sang, a child is born."

Rev. Daniel Rodgers remembering in his prayer that Whitefield had been his spiritual father, burst into tears, and cried: "My father! my father! the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof."

THE HEART OF THE HOME.

All really useful and happy homes have a heart centre toward which every member gravitates, drawn by attractions resistless because unfelt: The house-band that surrounds, strengthens, and protects, is usually the husband and father. The house-heart is usually the wife and mother. More than several times have we known the weak, the sick, the needy one of the family to become the hous—heart, to and from which the activities of every member were in steady circulation. For her room the best in the house was chosen. The stately parlor gave up its best chair and picture. To that room came the first flower, the first berries, the first fruit of orchard and vineyard. The newspaper came into that room first of all. There the father "reported" when returning, and left his good bye when going.—Thither the young girl, dressed for a party came in to be admired in the household heart. Thither the sons have come thrice a day fresh with the last excitement, and stories from the street. For her, the concert the lecture, and the sermon have been listened to, and a story of them brought home. Her need has wrought a gentleness and unity though the whole family. Her tranquil judgment has tempered hasty speeches and taught the way of impartial thought.—Around her chair, or couch, or bed, as around an altar thrice consecrated, have come daily worshippers, with Scripture, song and prayer. And so though years of chastened enjoyment and trembling hope, this family has found training in a life of unity, purity, and love. The house has had a heart. The passers-by said "afflicted."—But the dwellers knew that the affliction was working out fruits most peaceable and rewards eternal.

The heart ceased to beat. The room was empty, The errands and the services of love ended. And the stricken ones stood together, and with voices low and earnest, vowed and prayed: By the memory of the past, by the ache and emptiness of this hour and by the hope of the future, we vow a holy living in the Lord; and we beseech him that in his house of many homes, we may have one, and may she be the heart of it. Amen. BLESSED ARE THEY THAT MOURN.

MARRIED LIFE.—Good counsel from a wife and mother: "I will try, to make myself and all around me agreeable. It will not do to leave a man to himself till he comes to you, to take no pains to attract him, or to appear before him with a long face. It is not so difficult as you think, dear child, to behave to a husband so that he shall remain forever a husband. I am an old woman, but you can still do what you like; a word from you at the right time will not fail of its effect; what need have you to play the suffering virture? The tear of a loving girl, says an old book, is like a dew drop on a rose; but that on the cheek of a wife is a drop of pain to her husband. Try to appear cheerful and contented, and your husband will be so; and when you have made him happy, you will become so, in reality. Nothing flatters a man so much as the happiness of his wife, he is always proud of himself as being the source of it. As soon as you are cheerful you will be lively and alert, and every moment will afford you an opportunity to let fall an agreeable word. Your education which gives you an immense advantage, will greatly assist you; and your sensibility will become the noblest gift that nature has bestowed on you, when it shows itself in affectionate assiduity, and stamps on every action a soft, kind, tender character, instead of wasting itself in secret repinings."

THE RESTORATION OF SEBASTOPOL.—The walls of Sebastopol are completely restored, and upward of three hundred houses have been built in place of those ruined by the bombardment. A new church, in the form of a pyramid, built entirely of marble, has also been erected in the churchyard of the town. The funds for the construction of this building were raised by a public subscription in the whole of Russia. The chief of the subscribers was Princess Wassiltchykoff, who gave up for that purpose the whole of her year's pension, amounting to 15,000 rubles (£2,000). A sum of 200,000 rubles was expended on the building. The principal monument in the churchyard is that of Prince Michael Gortchakoff. On it is the following inscription: "Here lie among warriors the mortal remains of the man who prevented the enemies of our country from penetrating to this spot." The tombstones of the men are all alike in shape and size, and each of them bears the inscription: "Grave of our brother."

Notice! Notice! Notice! Notice!

HAVING seen by the Standard and SENTINEL of 5th, that the Yarborough House is advertised as the only first class Hotel, we wish to call the attention of the traveling public to two or three facts:

It is well known that the National Hotel is new and was furnished by J. M. Blair, (who gave us this notice extraordinary of the Yarborough House,) regardless of expense, only this past Fall, but it was done when he expected to be the Proprietor, and retain this as he expressed it, for his first class boarders, and send his second class to the Yarborough. The trouble was he had to go there himself.

To do justice to the owners of this property, my customers and myself, I will say that let the public simply give the house a trial, and they will say no better, cleaner, better kept house can be found in the South or North.

Tobacco and Cigars.

HAVING PURCHASED THE STOCK AND fixtures of W. A. Mehegan, Tobacconist, I propose to continue it in its various departments at the old stand, and would be pleased to see the former patrons of Mr. Mehegan together with my friends and acquaintances and I promise to furnish them with the best smoke or chew that can be procured in the City.

I am agent for Mehegan's celebrated brand of the Banker's Segar which beat the world for cheapness and fine flavor and can be procured no where else in the state, than from myself. Mine is the only establishment in North Carolina that you can procure the celebrated brands of Gravely chewing tobacco. Being confined exclusively to the segar and tobacco business, enables me to offer more superior goods and at lower prices than can be had elsewhere in Raleigh, small dealers will find it to their interest to call and examine my stock as I can beat the State in prices and in a line of goods suitable to the wants of their customers.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivaled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 12th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

EVIDENCE BEFORE THE BRAGG COMMITTEE.

The Standard and the whole Radical party are so jubilant over Littlefield's victory and the "triumphant vindication of him and his friends," as they term it, before the investigating committee, that we feel an irresistible impulse to lay before our readers the evidence given before that committee by Tim Lee, late of Boston, and now Sheriff of Wake county.

The Governor was so elated at the result of the investigation, that he gave public manifestation of it by making Littlefield, the man who succeeded so cleverly in evading being convicted of his villainies, the bearer of special dispatches to the President of the United States.

Before the country was sunk so low in avarice and political corruption, and before negro troops were marched around the ballot boxes of the South, the Sheriffs were chosen because of their integrity, worth and business capacity. As Tim is the chosen man of the people of Wake for their Sheriff, we will say nothing harsh of him, for fear of giving offence to the people of Wake. We tried to think well of Tim after we heard that, at Sorrell's, he denounced Littlefield as a first class rascal.

The people of Wake have never heard their high Sheriff denounced, and might think hard of us were we to attempt it simply because he went into Littlefield's room and seeing $10,000 addressed to him, he put it in his pocket! Pray, what harm was there in that!

But we take Tim's evidence to convict Littlefield with, since Littlefield swore himself clear out, he being his own witness.

And now to the evidence; let Tim speak for himself:

MARCH 7, 1870.—The examination of T. F. Lee who says:

Question.—State what you know, if any thing, touching the compromise and settlement of a certain suit in the Superior Court of Wake, in the name of Robert C. Ketone against David A. Jenkins, State Treasurer, and the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio Railroad Company, and your agency, if any, in said matter?

Answer.—A day or two before the matter was settled, Gen. Littlefield spoke to me about said suit, and asked me to see plaintiff's attorneys and learn what compromise could be made in regard to lifting the injunction. I soon after saw Mr. R. C. Badger, who said he was junior counsel, and referred me to Mr. E. G. Haywood, as principal counsel in the case. I then saw Mr. Haywood and desired him to inform me upon what terms it could be settled. He said, for one hundred of the bonds to be issued to the said Company.

I then returned and saw Gen. Littlefield and told him the terms, who said he could not comply with the terms, or words to that effect, but he would see Mr. McAden and give me an answer in regard to it. I think, on the next day, I received a note from Gen. Littlefield, saying he would give seventy-five of the bonds, and if that was declined the offer would be final, and I need take no further action in the matter.

I then returned to Mr. Haywood and delivered Gen. Littlefield's answer, and he said he would consult with Fowle and Badger and give me an answer that evening.

That evening I met Mr. Haywood and Mr. Fowle at Mr. Haywood's office. I do not remember whether Mr. Badger was present or not. Mr. Haywood informed me that they had concluded to accept the seventy-five bonds and lift the injunction and were to have all the papers ready the next morning. I then informed Gen. Littlefield of the arrangement, who said he would be ready when they had the papers ready.

I think it was on the next evening Mr. Haywood handed me the papers (they were the whole papers in the case,) with the authority to receive the seventy-five bonds.—I then went to the Treasurer's office, where I found Mr. McAden and Gen. Littlefield, or they came in soon after. Mr. K. P. Battle was sent for by the Treasurer to examine the papers. He came, examined the papers, pronounced them correct, and the Treasurer delivered over the bonds to Mr. McAden. On the same evening Gen. Littlefield, at his room at the Yarborough House, handed to me seventy five of the bonds, when, perceiving that one coupon had been cut off each bond, I demanded three more bonds to make up the amount of said coupons cut off. He refused to give these, as it was more than the amount of coupons cut off, but handed me two bonds, which I accepted. I then took the seventy-seven bonds and carried them to Mr. Haywood's office, and delivered them to him. Mr. Fowle was present at the time.

Question.—Did you get any of the said bonds, or any of those received from the Treasurer—if so, how many, when, of whom, what for, and what was done with them?

Answer.—I got none of those delivered to Mr. Haywood. There was no specified agreement as to paying me for my services. Gen. Littlefield said to me if the matter was accomplished, I should not be anything the loser by it. I went to his room at the Yarborough House, the next morning; he was there some time while I was in the room; he went out; I found a package on the bureau directed to me. I took it; I examined it there; found ten bonds, each for $1,000, and put them in my pocket.—They were the bonds issued to the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio Railroad Company. I sent the bonds, for sale, to the house of Fuller, Treat & Cox, of the city of New York. They advanced on them the sum of $1,000 which I received. This is all I got nothing more. Gen. Littlefield, as I understood from him, was going away by that morning's train. He said nothing to me, that I remember, about any bonds.

T. F. LEE.

Sworn and subscribed before the Commission. THOS. BRAGG, Chairman.

March 10th, 1870.

T. F. Lee recalled and examined, says:

Question. You stated upon your former examination, that you received ten of the bonds of the State, issued to the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio Railroad Company, and that you sent the same to New York for sale. State whether then, or at any time, you sent any other of the bonds issued to the said Company, to New York for sale, or any other purpose, if so, how many?

Answer. I sent no other of said bonds to New York then, as stated by me.

Question. Did you at any time have any other of said bonds in your possession; if so, when and where, and for what purpose?

Answer. I did have five other of said bonds in my possession in Raleigh, some eight or ten days after the settlement of the suit to which I have referred. They were placed in my hands to negotiate for the sale of them.

Question. How did these bonds come into your hands; from whom, as whose property, and what was done with them?

Answer. I received a note from Judge Watts, saying that Col. Dewrese was in his debt $2 000, or words about to that effect, and that he, Dewrese, had left word with Col. Haywood to turn over to him five of the bonds, and directing me to get them from Col. Haywood and negotiate their sale for him. I either saw Col. Haywood in person, or wrote him a note, I don't remember which. He sent me the bonds next day after I received the note by Judge Watts. They were placed with the others in the banking house of Fuller, Treat & Cox, for sale. As I have stated, they failed and nothing has been realized by their sale.

Question.—Have you the note of Judge Watts, if so, will you produce it?

Answer.—I cannot say; I will search for it, and if found, will hand it to the Commission before they report.

Question.—You have stated that the ten bonds received by you were in a package addressed to you—in whose hand writing was that address?

Answer.—This is what I meant to say; the bonds were about half rolled up, and a piece of paper lying on them with my name written on it. I did not notice about the hand writing, and cannot say now whose hand writing it was. L. F. LEE.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, March 22, 1870.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D., pastor of the Baptist Church of this city.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

By Henry Eppes, col.: Bill to protect the rights of citizens travelling in public conveyances. Provides that there shall be no distinction made on account of color. Placed on Calendar.

By Mr. Welker: Bill to amend an act authorizing the Public Treasurer to borrow $150,000 of the special tax fund, proposes to increase the amount to $250,000. Placed on Calendar.

By A. H. Galloway, col.: Resolution in favor of Miss Annie E. Leak, a woman without arms, exempts her from paying county and State tax; lies over.

CALENDAR.

Resolution (of Mr. Forkner): That for the remainder of the session it shall only require a vote of a majority of Senators (a quorum being present) to suspend the rules. This resolution shall take effect from its passage.

Messrs. Jones of Columbus, Forkner, Cook and Lassiter, urged the adoption of the resolution.

Messrs. Love, Welker, Lindsay and Murphy, spoke in opposition to its passage.

Mr. Forkner called the previous question, which was sustained, and the vote on the resolution stood as follows, to wit:

YEAS—Messrs Beasly, Brogden, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Forkner, Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, col., Jones of Columbus, Jones of Wake, Lassiter, Long, Long, Moore of Carteret, Stephens, Sweet and White—19.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barnes, Beall, Berman, Bellamy, Burns, Eppes, col., Graham Jones of Mecklenburg, Lindsay, Love, Mason, Melchor, Murphy, Scott, Welker and Whiteside—16.

The President, (Mr. Graham in the Chair) said the 43 rule of the Senate prescribed that "no rule of the Senate shall be altered, suspended, or rescinded without a vote of a majority of all the Senators elected and no motion to suspend shall embrace more than one rule or relate to any other subject than the one specified in said motion." It is also laid down in Barclay's Digest as follows: "It is not in order under color of amendment to change or rescind a rule."

This amendment of the rules has not been adopted by a vote of a majority of the Senators elected. The Chair decides that this amendment of the rules has not received a sufficient number of votes, and will not be regarded as binding on the Senate.

Mr. Forkner appealed from the decision of the Chair; after some debate withdrew the appeal.

Mr. Forkner moved a suspension of the rules in order to take up the "Machinery bill" and "Bill to provide a Public Printer" which failed.

Mr Cook moved to fine any Senator who absents himself from the Senate without leave $50, per day for each day of such absence, which was voted down.

AYES.—Messrs. Beasley, Bellamy, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Hayes, Jones of Columbus, Moore of Carteret, Stephens, Sweet and White.—12.—23.

By Mr. Colgrove, resolution instructing the clerk of the Senate to write or telegraph absent Senators to return at once, and instructing the Clerk to keep a record of those notified.

Mr. Jones of Mecklenburg offered the following as a substitute, to wit:

Resolved, That leave of absence already granted to Senators and which have not taken effect shall be rescinded, which was adopted.

NAYS.—Messrs. Beeman, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Hayes, Jones of Columbus, Lassiter and Stephens—9.

By Mr. Colgrove: Resolution to rescind all leave of absence heretofore granted to Senators.

Mr. Moore of Carteret moved to lay the resolution on the table.

Mr. Colgrove called the previous question on the passage of the resolution, which was not sustained.

Mr. Cook, moved a call of the House, which was refused.

Mr. Moore's motion to table failed for want of a quorum voting, and the resolution was voted down.

By Mr. Sweet: Resolution to rescind the joint resolution to adjourn sine die on the 28th inst.

Mr. Sweet moved to suspend the rules in order to put it on its passage, which was voted down.

YEAS.—Messrs. Bellamy, Brogden, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eppes (col.) Forkner, Hayes, Harrington, Hyman (col.) Jones of Columbus, Jones of Wake, Scott, Shoffner, Stevens and Sweet—16.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Bill to provide for the collection of taxes by the State and by the several counties of the State on property, polls and income.

On motion of Mr. Mosely the 23rd section was amended so as to require Sheriffs to make their reports to the clerk of the County Commissioners on or before the fourth Monday in "August" instead of "October" setting forth all sums received to that date, not previously accounted for, the date of such receipt &c.

On motion of Mr. Graham the 34th section was amended so as to require Sheriffs to pay in their State taxes on or before the 1st day of "October" instead of "December."

On motion of Mr. Graham the 36th section was amended so as to require Sheriffs to settle with the county Treasurers on or before the 1st day of "December" instead of "March," and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Welker it was made the special order for to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Bill to raise revenue; was considered by sections.

Mr. Welker moved to amend section 3, so as to tax all the property of the State one tenth of one per cent for the benefit of public schools, which was adopted.

Mr. Cook moved to amend section 4, so that a special tax of one tenth of one per cent, shall be levied and collected on all the taxable property of the State, to be applied to the erection of the Penitentiary and support of the convicts, which was adopted.

Pending the further consideration of the bill the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, March 22.

The House was called to order at half past 9 o'clock.

Leave of absence was granted to Mr. Wilson.

Mr. Williams, of Harnett, was announced as being confined to his room in sickness.

Mr. Hodnett gave notice that when the bill to aid in the construction of the Valley Railroad should come up, he would present a petition from the most prominent and respectable citizens of Granville county, protesting against the measure.

Mr. Stevens presented a couple of petitions which were referred to the Judiciary Committee.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS.

By Mr. Jarvis: A resolution revoking all leaves of absence, heretofore, granted by this House to take effect on or after this day.

Mr. J. said that unless some action of this kind was taken, the House would be left without a quorum. He understood that unless certain matters of legislation were acted upon before adjournment, the Governor would immediately issue his proclamation calling the Legislature back, and if leaves of absence already granted were not revoked and all others refused, the House, could not in a day or two, transact business for the want of a quorum. If this General Assembly after being in session ever since last November should adjourn without transacting business of vital importance and be called back by the Governor, it would be perpetrating a gross outrage upon the people.

Mr. Vestal moved to postpone the resolution until Thursday.

The motion was rejected by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Cherry, Dixon, Green, Hodnett, Kinney, Long, of Richmond, McCanless, Painter, Vestal and Vest.

NAYS.—Messrs. Argo, Armstrong, Blair, Boddie, Carson, Cawthorn, Durham, Eagles, Farrow, Ferebee, Forkner, Gatling, Gibson, Grier, Gunter, Harris, of Franklin, Hawkins, Hicks, High, Hinnant, Hodgin, Hoffman, Hudgings, Ingram, Jarvis, Kelly, of Davie, Kelly, of Moore, Leary, Malone, Mayo, McMillan, Moore of Alamance, Nicholson, Price, Proffit, Ragland, Renfrow, Robinson, Reynolds, Smith, of Alleghany, Smith, of Wayne, Snipes, Stanton, Stevens, Sweat, Thompson, Waldrop, Welch, and Williams, of Sampson.

Eagles, col. offered the following amendment which was adopted, "and that every member leaving without leave shall not be entitled to any per diem for the time he is so absent."

After some debate, Mr. Justice moved to lay the resolution on the table.

The yeas and nays were called and the motion to lay on the table was rejected by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Bowman, Candler, Carey, Downing, Farrow, Hawkins, High, Hodnett, Hoffman, Hudgings, Justice, of Rutherford, Kelly, of Moore, Kinney, McCanless, Morrill, Painter, Pearson, Renfrow, Robbins, Simonds, Smith, of Alleghany, Smith, of Wayne, Vestal, Vest and Waldrop.

Mr. Downing moved to lay the bill on the table.

The motion to table was lost by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Armstrong, Candler, Carson, Davidson, Downing, Durham, Ellis, Farrow, Gatling, Gibson, Green, Grier, Hawkins, Hicks, High, Hinnant, Justice, of Rutherford, Kelly, of Davie, Kelly, of Moore, Malone, McCanless, Moore, of Alamance, Nicholson, Price, Ragland, Reynolds, Stanton, Stevens, Sweat, Sykes, Thompson and Williams, of Sampson, Smith, of Alleghany, Smith, of Wayne, Strudwick, Thompson, Vest, Waldrop, Welch, Williams, of Sampson.—Yeas 35.

On motion of Mr. Kelly, of Davie, the bill to incorporate the Shoals Manufacturing Company, was taken up and passed its third reading.

On motion of Mr. Durham, the bill authorizing the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford R. R. Co to construct a branch Road in the direction of East Tennessee, was taken up, amended and passed its several readings.

On motion of Cherry, col., the bill to incorporate Edgecombe Lodge No. 298, A. Y. M., was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Hinnant the bill to empower the Commissioners of Wayne county to collect arrears of taxes, was taken up and passed its several readings.

By Mr. Pou: A bill to amend the act repealing certain Railroad appropriations. On motion of Mr. Pou the rules were suspended and the bill was considered.

(The bill strikes out in the second section of the repealing act, which refers to money in the Treasury arising from special taxes, the words "and shall be credited to the counties of the State, upon the tax to be assessed for the year 1870, in proportion to the amount collected from them respectively." The bill passed its second reading.

Mr. Welch argued against the bill on the ground that it was tantamount to levying upon the people of the State an additional tax of $317,000.

Messrs. Downing, Justice and Bowman supported the bill.

The bill then passed its third reading.

House then adjourned.

THE INCOME TAX LAW REPEALED.—There is a serious misapprehension in the public mind in relation to the income tax, says the New York Herald. Petitions are being sent to Washington for the repeal of the law. It should be distinctly understood that the Income Tax law was repealed by limitation on the 31st day of Dec. 1869. After it is paid no other income tax can be collected or assessed without the enactment of an entirely new law; which is not likely to be brought about. The repeal of the old law is final and unconditional. It takes effect as soon as the tax for 1869 is paid. A bill passed the House under the previous question rule a few days ago, providing for the assessment and collection of an income tax for one year only, (1870,) but it met with a disastrous defeat in the Senate. It is not at all likely that Congress will put such a needless burden upon the people again in face of the unanimous protest of the entire press of the country. The occasion that called for it, has passed away forever. Let us have no more income tax laws.

ARSENIC EATERS.—The New York Express says great trouble prevails in a Connecticut town concerning a young lady, who is said, by the medical faculty, to have been eight days dead, yet whose face is full, eyes are unsunken, lips red, cheeks suffused by the flush of life, and muscles supple. The popular whim is that it is a case of catalepsy or trance. But the physicians think that the singular appearance of the body is owing to arsenic which the lady habitually swallowed during her life to improve her complexion. This habit prevails more generally than the uninitiated are aware. Those who have long been accustomed to indulge thus become confirmed arsenic eaters, and are finally compelled to minister to the appetite without reference to the complexion. The habit was suggested by the plump and fresh appearance of the workers in arsenic, who eat it as an antidote for its poisonous fumes, and who live, looking comely and healthy, comparatively short lives.

The Responsibilities of the Liver.

The liver has a very important part to perform in the animal economy. Its function is two-fold. The fluid which it secretes tempers the blood and regulates the bowels, and upon the quantity and quality of the secretion depends, in a great degree, the adaptation of the blood to the requirements of the system as the due removal of the refuse matter which remains in the intestines after the work of digestion has been accomplished.

One of the principal uses of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is to tone and control this somewhat unruly organ. The antibilious properties of the preparation are scarcely secondary to its virtues as a stomachic. Its operation upon the liver is not violent like that of mercury, but gradual and gentle. Instead of creating a sudden tumult in that sensitive gland, it regulates its action by degrees. Hence, it is a safe remedy for bilious disorders, while mercury, being a tremendous excitant, is not. The more naturally and healthy a diseased organ can be restored to its normal condition the better, and it is the peculiar property of this harmless vegetable alterative to reinforce and regulate without exciting or convulsing.

The success which has attended its use as a remedy for affections of the liver is proverbial. Persons of a bilious habit who take it habitually as a protection against the attacks to which they are constitutionally liable, pronounce it the best liver tonic in existence. The symptoms of an approaching fit of biliousness can hardly be mistaken. A pain in the right side or under the shoulder blades, a sallow tinge in the whites of the eyes, sick headache, a feeling of drowsiness, low spirits, loss of appetite, constipation and general debility are among the usual indications of a morbid condition of the liver, and as soon as they appear the Bitters should be resorted to in order to ward off more serious consequences.

A CLERGYMAN (REV. J. McMURRAY,) writing from Halifax, N. Others to whom I have recommended them have used them with advantage." For Coughs and Colds the Troches are equally efficacious.

MR. JAMES LEWIS had a choice lot of fish at his stand yesterday morning, and will repeat this morning. It is certain he has created something of a revolution in the price of fish in this market, and the consequence is, he is disposing of his daily supplies without any trouble—shad, rock, herring and other varieties.

FARMING OUT HIS OFFICE.—The "Buncombe baby," reading Clerk in the House of Representatives, left for his home, in the West, about two weeks ago. But, before he left, he was allowed to put in a sub, whom he pays three dollars per day.—"Tommie" gets the other four, and reserves to himself the pay for Sundays. This is Radical dealing.

MUSICAL CONVENTION.—The Convention met and organized last night. Several visitors have already arrived and more are expected, and the meeting promises to be an interesting one. Prof. Allen arrived yesterday, and is Musical Director of the Convention.

COMPLIMENTARY BENEFIT TO MRS. JAMES A. OATES.—As will be seen by the following correspondence, the Oates Burlesque and Operatic Company will remain to night, on which occasion a citizens' complimentary benefit will be tendered to Mrs. James A. Oates, who seems to have entirely captivated the play-going portion of our city.

CORRESPONDENCE.

RALEIGH, March 22, 1870.

Mrs. James A. Oates:—MADAM:—The undersigned have experienced much gratification in attending the entertainment given by your excellent Troupe last evening.

They were especially pleased with your own charming impersonations, and with the high order of talent which you evince in your profession.

With a view of exhibiting their appreciation in a substantial manner, they desire to tender to you a complimentary benefit on Wednesday evening.

Richard B Haywood, Wm. A Smith, W. H. & R. S. Tucker, Thomas Badger, G. T. Stronach, V. C. Royster, J. B. Martin, P. Durham, D. P. High, J. A. Kelly, N. E. Armstrong, R. C. Badger, C. B. Root, J. Rann Waring, James McKee, R. G. Hay, Jo. W. Holden, Editor Standard, Wm. H. Harrison, Mayor of Raleigh, Jno. S. Pescud, A. N. Smedes, Johnston Jones, A. Miller, Wm. M. Boyland, H. J. Menninger, Douglas Bell, J. Turner, Jr., Editor of Sentinel, C. B. Harrison, A. Williams, W. H. Finch, Thos. J Jarvis, F. N. Strudwick, J. C. McMillan, Leroy G. Bagley, Sion H. Rogers, R. A. Alston, Wm. Lattie, M. D., J. H. Miller, Jas. L. Corley, F. J. Haywood, Jr., A. D. Royster, E. F. Page, Wm. H. Bagley, F. W. Foster, Thomas P. Johnston.

GENTLEMEN:—Allow me to thank you for the handsome compliment you have tendered me. It was my intention to commence my season in Richmond to night, but on receipt of your very kind offer, I telegraphed my agent to postpone our opening in Richmond until Thursday, to afford me the great pleasure of complying with your generous request.

Very respectfully,
MRS. JAMES A. OATES.

The Company appeared before a crowded audience last night, and the interest and satisfaction was increased over that of the night before, if possible. No doubt the accomplished beneficiary to-night, so well sustained as she will be by the other members of the troupe, will be greeted by the largest audience of the elite of the city that ever assembled at Tucker Hall.

It will be necessary, in order to be sure of seats to secure them early.

RELIGIOUS.—We learn that Dr. Pritchard announced to his congregation on last Sabbath that the Evangelist, Rev. A. B. Earle would hold a series of meetings with his Church, beginning on the 15th of May next. Mr. Earle is now conducting a meeting of thrilling interest in Mobile, Ala. From Mobile, he will go to New Orleans, from New Orleans to Savannah, thence to Charleston; after laboring for a season in Charleston, he will come to Raleigh, and close his southern tour in Norfolk, Va.

Mr. Earle conducted a meeting last spring in Richmond, Va., during which over four hundred persons were added to the churches. He recently closed a meeting in Baltimore in which about five hundred made a profession of religion. The Richmond Whig in noticing his style of preaching said: "Should you attend these meetings, you would see a tall, spare man about fifty four years of age arise and begin to speak. He wouldn't speak five minutes before you would see that he came from New England, and he wouldn't speak five minutes more before you wouldn't care where he came from."

An Important Consideration.

Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills are PURELY VEGETABLE and are adapted to young and old, male and female, and may be taken at all times, without restraint of occupation, without change of living, without diet and without the fear of taking cold during all kinds of weather, and in all climates; THEY CONTAIN NO MERCURY.

"HOW THIS WORLD IS GIVEN TO LYING!"

Shakespeare.

"Some of the radical rural organs of the Democracy," says the Asheville Pioneer, "are boasting that they will not allow the negroes to vote under the Fifteenth Amendment, and that the Amendment itself will be stricken from the Constitution."

Some people, who do not keep posted, might think there is some truth in the assertion contained in this extract, but there isn't! No, not one word of truth in it, nor shadow of foundation for it. Let the Pioneer give the name of the paper, and the language which would justify the cool deliberate assertion thus made.

"PALNED" AGAIN.

When we informed Mr. Dunn, Foreman of the Grand Jury, where he could find evidence to present certain rascals like Laflin and Littlefield, Judge Watts charged the Grand Jury that he "was pained to hear that somebody had been tampering with them."

When the Grand Jury presented Littlefield, a year ago, for attempting to bribe members of the Legislature, his Greasiness adjourned the Court immediately upon the presentment being made, before the Solicitor could draw a bill.

Mr. Dunn and the Grand Jury have, now, reason to be "pained," to learn that somebody has been "tampering" with the Court, for the investigation of the Bragg Committee brings to light the fact that Greasy Sam had five thousand dollars of the bonds extorted from the Company by the infamous Kehoe suit.

The following appears in the Washington Press dispatches of Monday night:

Gov. Holden, of North Carolina, telegraphs the President to suspend the writ of habeas corpus in that State. Governor Holden telegraphs a Senator: "We have Federal troops, but we want power to act. Is it possible the government will abandon its loyal people to be whipped and hanged? Habeas corpus should be suspended at once."

The English language wants terms sufficiently expressive to characterize the turpitude, the injustice, the madness of the course it seems from the above the Governor is determined on pursuing in regard to the people of this State.

Without the least ground for such measures of oppression and injustice towards the people of the State more than exists in almost any State of the Union, North or South, he seems bent on carrying out a policy that can result in nothing but confusion, oppression and probably bloodshed.

The Governor cannot name an instance in the State in which any civil officer has been hindered or interrupted in the discharge of his duties, and if bad men have escaped detection for breaches of the law, it is owing more to the incompetency and ignorance of Radical office holders than to anything else.

There is not a scintilla of reason or ground for the extraordinary request announced in the above telegram, and it is to be hoped that Congress (for we believe that body alone can suspend the writ of habeas corpus) will inform itself of the facts before it attempts an act of such grave and unheard-of injustice to our people.

DEFINITION.—The Radical organs call turning out rogues and swindlers, and putting honest, reliable and capable men in office, "a reign of terror!" That's what they are afraid of; they are expecting a "reign of terror" of this sort, to commence in this State next August, and that is what all this fuss is about; that is why counties are declared to be in a state of insurrection; that is what the Governor asks the President to suspend the writ of habeas corpus for. The "reign of terror" to incompetent, dishonest, Radical officeholders is coming—they will have to vacate, "and that's what's the matter."

ONE BY ONE.—We learn from the Goldsboro' Messenger that one Adolphus De Welde, carpet-bag Post Master at Nashville, N. C., recently absconded, taking with him funds belonging to the P. O. Department. He was a sort of jewelry tinker also, and when he left, took with him a number of watches, rings, breast pins, &c., which had been left with him for repairs. So they go, one by one—one by one! It seems that the only way to get clear of the breed is, to give them a chance to steal something, and then an opening to the Railroad.

We take pleasure in calling attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Hyman & Dancey, Cotton factors and Commission Merchants, to be seen in another column.—In addition to their regular commission business these gentlemen keep constantly on hand a full supply of fertilizers, embracing No. 1 Peruvian Guano, Phosphates, Bone dust, Plaster, Agricultural Lime, &c. &c. all of which they offer to cash buyers at the lowest rate they can possibly be sold. They have in store and purchased to arrive 150 tons of genuine No. 1 Peruvian Guano; farmers and others purchasing guano of them can rely upon its being pure and genuine as their purchases are made directly from the consignees of the Peruvian Government.

COMPLETED.—The subscription for a city clock in Wilmington has been completed, and from present indications, our neighbors on the Cape Fear will have their clock up and knocking off the hours before we get ours up, although they started their subscription after ours was bought.

The Newbern Times, Republican, says, "the democrats don't like Gen. Cliesgman's address—that is, those who are still fire-eating. Moderate men like it, and they are nearly all republicans."

TELEGRAPHIC.

Monday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The Senate remained in executive session over an hour confirming the appointment of General Pleasanton vice Bailey, Collector of Wall Street District New York, and Jos. P. Bradley Supreme Court Judge. A bill was introduced transferring the appointment of Revenue Supervisor to the President. The bill distributing arms or their equivalent in ordinance tores to Southern States, due from 1861 to 1865 passed. Georgia bill resumed—Drake's amendment authorizing the federal government to suppress disorders and assess the expenses from the people. No action.

House.—Bill introduced incorporating the Indian Territory and Gulf railroad, authorizing water guages on the Mississippi and its tributaries to protect alluvial lands to improve navigation. It provides for a regular system of observations; also to promote commerce and amity between Mexico and the United states by encouraging citizens of the United States to aid Mexico in developing the country. A resolution was introduced that the South and West were entitled to more circulation. Referred to Banking and Currency Committee. Under a suspension of the rules, the bill appropriating twenty thousand dollars to the Sisters of Mercy at Charleston to rebuild their Orphan Asylum, passed. Tariff resumed. Session to-night for debate.

Gov. Holden, of North Carolina, telegraphs the President to suspend the writ of Asbeas corpus in that State. Gov. Holden telegraphs a Senator: "We have Federal troops, but we want power to act. Is it possible the government will abandon its loyal people to be whipped and hanged? Habeas corpus should be suspended at once."

The Democrats voted in a body for Bradley to-day. The vote was 42 to 9.

The Supreme Court decides that the tender of payment of taxes before sale under the law of 1832, was equivalent to payment, and that subsequent sale by Commissioners conveyed no title. The Court disclaims jurisdiction in the Florida claim of Commodore Meade, it having been adjudicated in the Spanish Court after the treaty of 1819.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, March 21.—Gov. Walker and Gen Canby exchanged letters to-day. Nothing new; mere elaboration of previous letters. The city was quiet until this afternoon, when Ben. Scott, colored leader of Cahoon's police was captured in front of Scott's House. The special policeman Bush, was killed last night. As the police approached City Hall with Scott, an excited crowd of whites rushed on. But after a street fight, Scott was safely landed in City Hall. Cahoon has but six adherents in third station house.

RIO JANEIRO, March 21.—The Vomito still prevails, but its ravages are confined to foreigners.

Tuesday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—HOUSE.—The bill in relation to the Sutro tunnel is up.

SENATE.—A report was made adverse to the San Domingo treaty, and the consideration of treaties for acquisition of Territory in open session.

The Reconstruction Committee heard Perkins, Speaker of the Tennessee House of Representatives; no action. The Tennesseeans have a further hearing on Thursday.

The Committee on Foreign Relations a reed, unanimously, to report adversely on the Lemark treaty for the acquisition of St. Thomas.

The Supreme Court in B. F. Flanders vs. J. P. Tweed, from Louisiana, a cotton case, reversed the decision below and remanded the cause for a new trial.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, March 22.—The trial of Prince Pierre Napoleon commenced at noon. The utmost solemnity prevaded in the Court. Marshal Grammont was so insolent and defiant in his answers that the Court refused to hear him.

Tuesday Night Dispatches.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, March 22.—In Elizbeth City county, near Fortress Monroe, a band of colored squatters, left there by the Freedman's Bureau, have refused to give up the farms to their owners. To day, the Sheriff of the county, with a posse of eighty men, went to eject them, and was met by a large band of negroes and after a short fight were driven off. A messenger has arrived here asking Gov. Walker for assistance for the land owner.

Gen Canby, to-day, in reply to Gov. Walker's last letter says while he concedes Walker's position relative to law, he does not concede that he (Canby) was not authorized by his instructions to interfere, nor that his interposition was not necessary when it was exercised.

The city to-night is tranquil, Ellyson's police patrol the streets. The conflict between the Mayors is at an end so far as force is concerned, and the case goes to the Court to-morrow.

Jack Wren, charged with shooting Ben Scott, negro, surrendered himself this afternoon and was bailed to appear.

In the Legislature a resolution censuring Canby was rejected but not acted on. In the Senate a Republican offered a resolution asking Gov Walker to suspend further appointments under the enabling act, until the constitutionality of the law shall be decided, but it was defeated.

CARD.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE CO.

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

AT the request of General Jno. B Gordon, President Atlanta Department, I have come to your State to bring prominently before you the claims and merits of the Southern Life Insurance Company. It is under the control of as honorable and as responsible men as there are in the land. It is managed in the most prudent and economical manner and will deal justly and fairly with all.

We have no war to make upon other Insurance Companies, but we do wish to impress upon the people the importance of keeping their money at home. By careful calculation it is estimated that a sum of not less than twelve millions (annually) is sent from the South to the North for Life insurance and unless checked will surely prove suicidal to our interests. We ask you to consider how greatly the material interest of this section would be benefitted by the retention of these enormous sums in our midst.

We send no money away to enrich foreign capitalists but every dollar of premium (less expenses) IS INVESTED IN THE STATE FROM WHICH IT IS RECEIVED.

This department of the Company has operated both in Georgia and South Carolina, and has done an unprecedentedly large business. Some of the most prominent gentlemen in these States are identified with its interest. Its Board of Directors embrace the names of the ablest financiers, and most successful business men in the South. They are the Trustees of the sacred fund of the widow and orphan. Will you not trust your friends and neighbors; or is it more secure in the hands of strangers? We appeal to you to assist us in pushing forward this deservedly popular and reliable Southern corporation. Its solvency is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in the United States, its ratio of assets to liabilities the only true test of a Company's strength, fully sustaining this statement.—We would respectfully call attention to the Board of Direct rs and Stockholders, published in another column, and to our Board of Reference in this State and others.

Managed by able men, thoroughly experienced in the business of Life Insurance; its business since its organization has exceeded that of any other Company for the corresponding period of its existence

H. H. GOODLOE, General Agent for N. C.
DR. E. BURKE HAYWOOD, Examining Physician.
Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER, Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."

COMPANY,

OF ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI.

JAMES P. LUCAS, President.

CAPITAL STOCK, (PAID UP,) $150,000.00

Stockholders bound for Double the Amount of Stock!

$100,000 DEPOSITED WITH THE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, JAMES H. LUCAS, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

Pianos for Sale! Pianos for Sale.

MR. WILLIAM H. VAUGHAN, WELL known in our community as a Musician and Piano Tuner, is now appointed Agent for those splendid, Seven Octave, fine Rose Wood Pianos, built by C. M. Tremaine & Bro. These Pianos will be warranted for six years, and Mr. Vaughan is here ready to keep the instrument in perfect tune, if it should need it. He has at this time one of the Pianos at his residence, on Cabarrus Street, a little East of the N. C. R. R. Depot and would be glad to show it to any one who will call to see it.

These instruments took the premium at the Virginia State Fair, and without doubt are the best and cheapest instruments in the North or South.

Old Pianos taken in exchange for new ones, at a fair price. As I am confident that I can sell cheaper than any body else, I beg of my own people in the State to give me a call before purchasing elsewhere.

Piano tuning and Repairing done at shortest notice. Can make an old Piano as good almost as new, for a very low sum.

Address,

W. H. VAUGHAN
Box 240 Raleigh.
